

Oil Creek State Park Warbler Walk Report
Saturday, May 15
Trip Leader - Mike Leahy

There were 9 SRAS members and friends on the Warbler Walk on this wonderful spring day. Yes, the Canada Warblers have returned, and we had a great sighting! Here is a list of the 60 species tallied, in order of appearance:

wood thrush
Northern flicker
northern rough-winged swallow blue-gray gnatcatcher
yellow warbler
American goldfinch
Baltimore oriole
song sparrow
red-bellied woodpecker chipping sparrow
rose-breasted grosbeak
common yellowthroat
hooded warbler
tree swallow gray catbird Eastern phoebe
common grackle
warbling vireo
American redstart
Eastern bluebird
red-winged blackbird blue-winged warbler
great blue heron
red-eyed vireo
common merganser
turkey vulture
yellow-throated vireo
spotted sandpiper
chestnut-sided warbler black-capped chickadee American crow
swamp sparrow
magnolia warbler
brown-headed cowbird
house wren
great-crested flycatcher ruby-throated hummingbird cedar waxwing

tufted titmouse
wood ducks
scarlet tanager pileated woodpecker
chimney swift blue jay indigo bunting Canada geese
mallard
Eastern towhee
Canada warbler
dark-eyed junco American robin
European starling
cerulean warbler black-throated green warbler Northern cardinal
Canada goose
least flycatcher
mourning dove downy woodpecker
black-throated blue warbler